Dear Chrisia,

HERITAGE CONSULTANT ENGAGEMENT - SSD_10405

This letter has been prepared to confirm that I, the undersigned, have been engaged to fulfil the role of heritage consultant as required by Condition C1 of consent SSD_10405 for the Atlassian Central project.

I can confirm that I am available to the client for the resolution of all project matters concerning existing heritage fabric on or surrounding the project site. I have also been engaged to contribute to the fulfillment of all conditions as they relate to built heritage (note this does not include archaeology – to be addressed by others).

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you require anything further.

Kind regards,

Alexandria Cornish is a heritage consultant with a background in architecture and extensive experience in providing high quality strategic heritage advice to a variety both private and public clients.

Alexandria is passionate about the unique contribution that mid and late 20th century architecture makes to our built environment. Alexandria has provided heritage advice and reporting for several icons of these periods including Australia Square, MLC Building, Reader's Digest Building, AMP Building and St Peter Julian's Catholic Church. Notably Alexandria contributed to the major transformation of the former William Balmain Teacher's College in Lindfield.

Alexandria has expert knowledge of NSW heritage legislation and strong interest in the strategic management of heritage assets. Alexandria has advised a range of public sector clients from local to federal level about statutory compliance requirements, good heritage management and adaptive reuse of assets.
